

Feasting With the Saints

Many Saints have what is called “a feast day” which is a day to honor the Saint and to think about why they are a Saint. For more information, go to <http://www.catholic.org/saints/> maybe look up what Saints have their feast day on a day special to you.

DOWN

1. A virgin martyr who suffered in Constantinople. An Island was named in her honor in the Ionian Sea. Feast day: Nov. 30th
3. St. _____ of Pisa – Franciscan founder and diplomat. He became a friend of King Henry III who admired his purity and holiness, calling upon him to avert a Civil War between the throne and Earl Marshal. Feast day: March 13th
4. Foundress of the Sisterhood of Christian Schools of Mercy. Feast day: July 16th
5. Convicted of possessing texts of the Scriptures. Feast day: April 3rd
6. Patron Saint of Flying and Studying. Feast day: Sept. 18th
7. Two brothers bore this name, both were canonized. One served Pavia in Lombardy, Italy for 30 years; the other was Bishop in the reign of Pop St. Leo I. Feast day: Jan 7th
10. King of Northumbria, England; the successor of St. Ceolwulph. He reigned for 2 decades and then became a Benedictine monk at York. Feast Day: Aug 20th

ACROSS

2. Cared for the Christians, endured persecution and was arrested herself. Miraculously saved from drowning by St. Theodata. She was made patroness of a basilica in Rome in the 6th Century. Feast day: Dec. 25th
8. He was a monk of Santa Maria dei Fonte, in Italy and then a hermit on the Island of Gallinaria, in the gulf of Genoa. Feast day: Feb. 12th
9. St. _____ of Lisieux-Patron of the Missions, referred to as the “Little Flower”. Feast day: Oct 1st
11. Russian monk and wonder worker. Originally a pitiless tax collector at Pereslav near Rostov. Left family to enter a monastery. There he gave himself to a life of prayer and mortifications. Feast day: May 24th
12. Benedictine abbot, founder of Fontenay-Louet in the diocese of Seez, France. Feast day: June 10th

